

SAFE SHARPS DISPOSAL

Dispose of sharps by using a household container or an FDA approved sharps container.

FDA APPROVED SHARPS CONTAINER	HOUSEHOLD SHARPS CONTAINER
Use an FDA approved sharps container for proper disposal of needles, lancets, or pen needles.  FDA sharps containers for use at home and travel are available at pharmacies or online.	Use an empty, thick plastic laundry soap bottle with a screw on lid. Fill until it's 3/4 full  Label the bottle Tape container shut with heavy duty tape when the bottle is 3/4 full at most.

Do	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Do put the needle end in first immediately after use ✓ Do keep the lid on at all times ✓ Do keep all sharps disposal containers out of reach of children and pets ✓ Do take a portable sharps disposal container with you when you travel ✓ Do follow your community rules for getting rid of your container
Do NOT	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✗ Do NOT throw loose needles and sharps in the trash ✗ Do NOT flush needles and sharps down the toilet ✗ Do NOT put needles and sharps in the recycling bin ✗ Do NOT put needles and sharps in a clear or thin plastic container ✗ Do NOT put needles and sharps in a glass or aluminum container ✗ Do NOT remove, bend, break-off or recap needles and sharps